YOU MAY PAY BY CHEQUE

Please read this

We use the Transax service, from Certegy Limited, to obtain a warranty to your cheque.

Certegy will record information in relation to any cheque they are asked to warrant and will use it to decide whether to warrant this and future cheques (where a subscribing organisation requests this service from Certegy to help the subscribing organisation to decide whether to accept a cheque as payment).

If your cheque is subsequently returned unpaid, we will inform Certegy and also provide them with any information we hold (including your name and address). We may assign our rights to collect a debt to Certegy.

Certegy will use personal data about you (or information about your company) in order to enable them to collect a debt and may carry out a credit check where they deem it necessary to facilitate collection. Certegy will charge you an administration fee for the collection of a dishonoured cheque.

Services provided by Certegy are covered by the Financial Ombudsman Service. If you have any questions about the personal information held by Certegy that relates to you, or for details of the Credit Reference Agency they use, or information relating to anything else in this notice please phone 0870 240 4222. Calls to and from the company may be recorded for quality purposes.
